What's Hot Today:

► Fast Retailing (6288 HK, HK$24.22, HK$101bn) Strong in USA and Europe, while Greater China remained weak

Profits beat by robust overseas momentum. Fast Retailing who owns UNIQLO released its FY8/25 results, with revenue up 10% YoY to JPY3.4tn. Net profit grew by 16% YoY to JPY433bn, with NPM of 12.7%. The topline figure was largely in line with previous guidance, but net profit exceeded expectations by 6%, mainly due to better-than-expected performance in South Korea, SE Asia, India and Australia. Operating profit rose a robust 13% YoY. Both UNIQLO Japan and the overall UNIQLO International business achieved record-breaking revenue and profit. However, Greater China and the GU segment posted LDD OP declines.

4Q25 inline. Revenue in 4Q25 reached JPY784bn with the quarter's YoY growth rate further narrowing to 6%, a slowdown from the 10%, 14%, and 8% growth recorded FY25Q1-3. Although UNIQLO Greater China saw an accelerated YoY decline, revenue expanded slightly in August and September, which may partly ease market concerns. Meanwhile, UNIQLO Japan and GU business delivered solid HSD growth, and other overseas market maintained a strong momentum. GPM improved slightly by 0.2ppts YoY to 53.6%. Net profit increased by 59% YoY to JPY94bn, thanks to higher exchange gains.

FY26 guidance: improved earnings in key segments. Looking ahead, the company expects FY8/26 revenue of JPY3.75tn and net profit of JPY 435bn, up 10.3% and 10.7% YoY, respectively. In its core Japan market, it expects both revenue and profit to maintain solid momentum. For the Greater China market and the GU segment, management aims to return to growth through strategic restructuring and new business initiatives. In North America, profit is expected to see only single-digit growth in H1, followed by large revenue and profit gains in 2H as diversified approaches such as revising product price and reducing discount rate to offset tariff impacts may pay off.

Our view: The FY26 guidance paints a more positive picture for the Greater China market and the GU segment, as ongoing reforms is progressing on track and the Mgt expects to see profit growth in 1H26. We also believe the strong momentum in North America and European markets could help offset the weak demand in Greater China. Meanwhile, US tariffs may have limited impact no Fast Retailing as it moves quickly to mitigate the impact through flexible price adjustments even though it may face some pressure in 1H26. However, the counter is trading at 35.8x FY26E P/E, which is quite rich in valuation. As to gauge the performance of textile companies, the overall sentiment seems to be quite constructive.
